MAKE GETTING THERE HALF THE FUN

LET YOUR TRIP TAKE FLIGHT ON PREFERRED AIRLINES

Affordability. Convenience. Reach. Have it all when you book your flights with us.

An extensive selection on major airlines from departure cities coast to coast means we're your one-stop shop for vacation value. In fact, bundling your air and hotel can give you even greater savings just for packaging the two—the perfect start to an incredible getaway. Plus, you can still earn airline rewards for flying brands like United Airlines®, Delta Air Lines®, American Airlines®, and JetBlue®, bringing you one step closer to your next vacation.

START YOUR VACATION OFF RIGHT

The last thing you want to do right after arriving is figure out how to get to your hotel. We offer a wide variety of roundtrip transportation as well as rental car options, making getting around comfortable and convenient whether you're exploring one destination or many.

PROTECT YOUR VACATION INVESTMENT

PRE-DEPARTURE PENALTY WAIVER, PRICE GUARANTEE & MORE

Choose from two plan options—travel credit or cash refund—and protect your vacation investment.

Cancel for Any Reason: You may cancel or change your vacation for ANY reason prior to departure and receive a full refund for your vacation, less the cost of the Travel Protection plan, including nonrefundable airfares.

Price Guarantee: If the price of the hotel or Exclusive Nonstop Vacation Flight drops after you've booked, just let us know and we'll adjust the reservation to the lower price. Valid on Europe, Mexico, Caribbean, Hawaii, Africa, Asia, Australia, South Pacific, and Central and South America vacations.

Hurricane Travel Credit: If a category one or greater hurricane disrupts a vacation for 24 hours or more (June – November departures), travelers will receive a refund for unused or interrupted vacation nights plus a future vacation discount certificate.

HIGH QUALITY POST-DEPARTURE TRAVEL INSURANCE

Coverage doesn't end once you're at the airport or on your way. Additional comprehensive coverage includes trip interruption, missed connection, trip delay, medical, baggage, and more!

Restrictions apply. See your travel advisor and click here for more details.

THE RIGHT GROUP FOR YOU

We know that groups come in all shapes, sizes, and styles. That's why we offer two unique types of group bookings. Whether you're planning a wedding, birthday party, or corporate event, we have the right option for you—each backed by personalized service and great group discounts. Book your hotel only or combine with flights, including premium cabin fares, for more convenience and less worry.

WHICH GROUP IS YOUR PERFECT MATCH?

GroupEase®

Planning micro-gatherings of 10 passengers or more is a breeze with this small-group option.

Ideal if you have guests flying from multiple cities.

Individual vs. one overall booking so guests can book when they're ready.

No contract or upfront deposit required.

Monthly payment plans via Flex Pay for added affordability.

Unbeatable deals like special discounts and VIP services.

Excellent value for wedding couples, with select hotels offering an anniversary stay voucher.

Traditional Group

Enjoy flexibility and perks for 10 rooms or more.

Great for fluctuating guest lists, with adjustable payments and cancellations.

Monthly payment plans via Flex Pay for added affordability.

Lock in guaranteed room space at popular hotels or during peak travel periods.

Gain access to aggressive advanced pricing, including exclusive group offers throughout the year.

Earn free hotel perks, upgrades, and more.

Customized options like destination excursions, airfare, and more.

Dedicated sales and service for a personalized booking experience for the group.

Plus, your advisor can create a custom event page where your guests can find all the important information and even reserve their rooms. Get started on creating memories that will last a lifetime! See your travel advisor today.

THINGS TO KNOW BEFORE YOU GO

To ensure you're fully prepared for your European vacation, please refer to the information below and consult your travel advisor with any questions.

NEW ETA REQUIREMENT

An Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA) entry permit will be required for American travelers arriving in the United Kingdom, including Northern Ireland, beginning January 8, 2025. Note that those who have a layover in the UK will still need to apply for an ETA and that the approval process may take up to 72 hours. The cost at time of publication (January 2025) is £10 (approximately $13). Refer to the ETA website for updates.

DOCUMENTATION

Proper documentation is your responsibility. For travel to European countries, your passport must be valid for up to 6 months after your return. Contact your advisor or the consulates of the countries you're visiting for the most current requirements. We strongly recommend carrying a color copy of your passport's picture page on your person; however, if traveling between countries, carry your actual passport. If you've been immunized for COVID-19, we suggest bringing your vaccine card.

HEALTH & SAFETY

We strongly recommend that you visit the U.S. Department of State and Center for Disease Control and Prevention websites for important information on foreign travel, as well as our Health & Safety Tips.

BAGGAGE

The standard carry-on size for European carriers is slightly smaller than U.S. domestic flights, measuring 21.7 by 15.7 by 9 inches. Please check your air carrier's website to ensure that your baggage size and weight meet their requirements.

ELECTRONICS

The official voltage for Europe, the UK, and Ireland is 230, whereas most U.S. outlets are 110V. If your appliances don't use this voltage, you'll need to purchase an outlet converter adaptable for 2 round-pronged or 3 flat rectangle-pronged (UK and Ireland) outlets.

ACCOMMODATIONS AND MEAL PLANS

In general, rooms are smaller than in the Americas, and washcloths and toiletries are often not provided. Many hotels offer meal plans such as:

All-inclusive – Includes all meals, select drinks, daily activities, and nightly entertainment. Such plans may also be referred to as Endless Privileges® or Unlimited-Luxury®.

Full-board – Includes breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

Half-board – Includes breakfast and lunch.

DINING OUT

Tipping in restaurants is appreciated, but often not expected. When tipping is common, 5% is normal and 10% is considered generous. Service is generally less hurried than in the Americas.

USEFUL TIPS

Travel light, wear comfortable shoes, and ensure your luggage has sturdy wheels to withstand the steps and cobbled streets of Europe. Also, be prepared to pay a small fee for the use of public restrooms!

By booking with Travel Impressions, a brand of ALG Vacations® Corp, you agree to our General Cancellation Terms & Conditions. Any payment constitutes acceptance of these terms. Please review this document prior to booking.

WELCOME TO EUROPE

Even with a vast ocean between us, the lure of the Old World is inescapable and its magic untranslatable. Every region in every country has its own deep, wholly unique roots. These roots connect intricately throughout the continent, a complex network from which sprouted the origins of nearly every facet of Western society.

Squint into the distance: you can still see the ghosts of rising dust clouds on roads leading to Rome or Athens. Time travel becomes easy when staying in a historic castle in the wilds of Ireland; among the cypress-guarded hills of sun-drenched Tuscany; or amid the azulejos-tiled buildings of Seville. It simply stands still when sipping an espresso on the canals of Venice or Amsterdam or while listening to the whistle of the wind through the heather of Scotland.

Travel inland and feel the rumble of carriages over age-old cobblestones, reverberating through your soles in places like Frankfurt, Porto, and Paris. Crane your neck until you can stretch it no more to take in majestic spires that twist into the sun in London, Zurich, or Barcelona. Trade those towers for whitewashed buildings capped in blue in Greece or Croatia.

Regardless of the European destination, find yourself swept up in the romance of a fairy tale—a story still being written.

ENGLAND

Land of Hope and Glory

Cliffs, beaches, and marshes comprise over 7,700 miles of dramatic coastline in this island kingdom that has managed to dominate international affairs since colonial times. England, with its craggy coves, ancient stone houses, and bewitching cities, is connected to Scotland by the BritRail train, but separated from the rest of the continent by the North Sea and English Channel, preserving a culture and identity all its own.

Shakespeare's romantic England is still alive and well in the gardens and Lake District, while a stately, fascinating history full of drama forms the foundation of the modern capital, London. Under the Union Jack is where you'll find all of these delightful contradictions, mist-fueled myths, and tradition at its finest.

LONDON

“Legendary” is perhaps the best word to describe this enthralling and fast-paced city, an inspiration to writers, artists, and kings alike. With Big Ben, Buckingham Palace, and the Houses of Parliament looming in the background of Westminster Abbey, and the Tower of London keeping its secrets above the river, it’s easy to see beyond the modern amenities and bustle of the city into England’s deeply storied past.

However, part of what makes London so beguiling is the diversity found within the city limits. Elegant boutiques are easily found on Oxford Street, while quirky shops scattered throughout trendy Soho provide a hip counterpart. Theaters and fine dining are paired delightfully in the musical West End; art and literature remain intertwined in Bloomsbury. Humble fish and chips are served in paper only steps from palaces like Windsor Castle.

See it all from the London Eye, Europe’s tallest observation wheel, or the cobblestoned streets of a bygone era, delighting in new discoveries with each visit.

LONDON TOURS

Private Windsor Castle & Hampton Court Tour

Tour Windsor Castle, including the State Apartments and St. George's Chapel, and marvel at its priceless art collection. Then, visit Hampton Court Palace, which was at the center of English court life and politics for nearly 200 years. See the lavish State Rooms, Great Hall, Chapel Royal, medieval kitchens and cellar, gardens, and the world-famous maze.

Bath & Avebury Tour

Discover the beauty of a vanished world at the standing stones of Avebury and explore the city of Bath on this private full-day tour. Visit the elegant Pump Room and the other Regency-style terraces and crescents of this beautiful city. Next, discover a prehistoric site at nearby Avebury or explore Castle Combe, one of the country's prettiest villages.

Winchester, Stonehenge & Salisbury

On this full-day private tour, visit the ancient capital of England, Winchester, and its famous Norman Cathedral before continuing to Salisbury to see its magnificent early English-Gothic Cathedral. Finally, set your sights on mystic Stonehenge; its prehistoric ruins date back nearly 4,000 years.

Royal Windsor Morning Tour

Windsor Castle is the largest castle in England and still a Royal residence, and famous for the Round Tower and St. George's Chapel. This private half-day morning tour passes through Eton, home of one of England's famous public schools; Windsor Great Park and Runnymede, where King John sealed the Magna Carta; and the Kennedy Memorial.

London Sightseeing Tour

Explore London's most famous attractions on this private half-day afternoon tour with an expert driver. Sights may include Buckingham Palace, the Changing of the Guard, the Houses of Parliament, the River Thames, 10 Downing Street, Trafalgar Square, Westminster Abbey, Big Ben, St. Paul's Cathedral, the Tower of London, the Law Courts, and Fleet Street.

London by Night in Private Car

See the best of London at night from the relaxing vantage point of a private car. Enjoy an evening panoramic drive through Piccadilly, Theatreland, Trafalgar Square, Soho, Chelsea, and the Thames Embankment, finishing with a visit to one of London's famous riverside pubs. V

Hop-On, Hop-Off Bus & River Cruise

See London aboard the open-top, double-decker Big Bus on this hop-on, hop-off tour with unobstructed views and commentary. Choose the 24-hour or 48-hour ticket and design your own itinerary. Upgrade to the fast-track London Eye for an aerial view from the giant observation wheel. Hop off at Westminster Pier or the Tower of London for a Thames River cruise. V

Best of London

See London's top landmarks on this comprehensive tour. Explore St. Paul's Cathedral and stop for photos at Westminster Abbey. Watch the Changing of the Guard at Buckingham Palace and visit the Tower of London, with free time for lunch at your expense. Enjoy an extended river sightseeing cruise, and upgrade with a London Eye flight or cream tea at Harrods. V

Westminster & Westminster Abbey

Save hours of research time and join a guide for a thorough walking discovery tour that covers some of London's most notable buildings. See Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, Downing Street, the Houses of Parliament, and more. No need to wait in long ticket lines as entry to Westminster Abbey is included! V

Changing of the Guard

Delve into London's royal heritage on a visit to Buckingham Palace to see the Changing of the Guard ceremony on this walking tour. Then, enter the palace's opulent State Rooms for an independent audio tour. See lavish chambers during a tour only open to the public for two months of the year, and gain insight into the history of the British monarchy. V

The Making of Harry Potter

Be transported directly into J.K. Rowling's beloved world of wizardry on an official guided tour of the Warner Brothers Studio. Take a train directly from central London to the studio, where you'll be greeted and taken on an immersive journey featuring original sets, props, and costumes featured in all eight movies. V

Stonehenge, Windsor Castle & Bath

Travel by coach bus with WiFi and air conditioning on this full-day tour with roundtrip transport from London and two itinerary options. Combine a Stonehenge visit with a stop in Lacock and a walking tour of Windsor, or visit Windsor Castle and Stonehenge. Both options include a pub lunch and pass the city of Bath, the hometown of Jane Austen. V

Leeds Castle, Cliffs of Dover & Canterbury

Discover 3 of southern England's top sights on this full-day guided coach trip from London. Pass the maritime historical buildings of Greenwich en route to the county of Kent, the Garden of England. Tour stunning Leeds Castle and Canterbury Cathedral, then end with views of Dover Castle and the famous White Cliffs of Dover. V

Downton Abbey, Blenheim Palace & Cotswolds

On this full-day trip, first travel from London to Blenheim Palace, the UNESCO-protected country house where Winston Churchill was born. Then, admire the scenery of the Cotswolds with a visit to either Bibury or Bourton-on-the-Water. Lastly, explore the village of Bampton to see some of the locations where Downton Abbey was filmed, with time for lunch. V

Churchill's London & The War Rooms

Learn all about Winston Churchill's life on this private history-themed tour. You'll see where Churchill lived as a child and young man, where he purchased his suits, his preferred cigar shop, and the church where he married. Admire 10 Downing Street and the Houses of Parliament and explore the Churchill War Rooms. Skip-the-line tickets included. V

MANCHESTER

Although best known for “football”—soccer to Americans—the gently rolling hills, curving rivers, shimmering lakes, and game-filled forests of the English countryside transcend that international headliner, their signature team, Manchester United, the “Red Devils.” Fans of one of the UK’s top leagues are welcome to visit the team’s home base in Old Trafford Stadium and the National Football Museum, but shouldn’t stop there.

Go on to the Victoria Baths in Chorlton-on-Medlock, a Mancunian treasure featured on the BBC; the Lowry in Salford Quays for performing arts; The Royal Exchange Theatre for Shakespearean works staged by an award-winning troupe; or by taking the youngsters out for the Manchester Museum’s Big Saturday’s educational activities. Shopping on Market Street in the Manchester Amdale, Trafford Centre, high-end King Street, and The Avenue at Spinningfields provide additional recreation, and neighborhoods like the collegiate Oxford Road, swanky Deansgate, boho North Quarter, and Canal Street keep celebrations going all night and into distant memory.

LIVERPOOL

The home of the Beatles, Liverpool embraces the association to the tune of tours of the childhood homes of John Lennon and Paul McCartney, and an annual International Beatleweek Festival. Visitors can also take a virtual tour through the lives of these famous musicians with the Beatles Story attraction on Albert Dock.

Along that waterfront, travelers will discover a UNESCO World Heritage Site of its own merit, from the historic districts and the Ropewalks area to St. George's Quarter, with plenty of museums dotting the region. With more museums and galleries than any other place in the United Kingdom outside of London, there's nothing more Liverpudlian than spending a day indoors, soaking in the city's proud identity.

SCOTLAND

Wild, rugged, and austere, yet sophisticated, this proud region north of England has every right to be so. Birthplace of the revered game of golf and home to nearly 600 spectacular and challenging courses, as well as original national cuisine and lingo to match, Scotland's traditions have endured, its character becoming—like their globally acclaimed whisky—even richer with time.

In the Highlands, embrace the wild nature of the country, and hike through the same fields of heather and gorse fierce clansmen once strode through as they protected their land through centuries of turmoil. Plumb the secrets of mountains like Ben Nevis, the UK's highest peak, or go sea level to see what creatures you can spy in the waters—will it be the Loch Ness monster or dolphins in the Moray Firth?

Then cross into a different culture in what is colloquially considered the Lowlands, which includes the Central Belt and the Southern Uplands. This is the softer side of the land, where rolling green pastures and gentle landscapes fill the space between coal and agricultural trade and elegant cities like Glasgow and Edinburgh.

EDINBURGH

Scotland's capital, this city in the Lowlands is as steeped in culture and architectural marvels as its counterparts in the Highlands are in legend. Here, the castle—Palace of Holyroodhouse, where Mary, Queen of Scots lived—and National Museum of Scotland provide a taste of history, while the reportedly haunted Blair Street Underground Vaults sink you right into it.

For lighter entertainment, you'll find vintage boutiques in Stockbridge, luxury shopping at Harvey Nichols in St. Andrews Square, endless variety on the Royal Mile and historic Grassmarket, and five of the country's 12 Michelin-starred restaurants. You'll likely need a reservation for any of those, but public houses are plentiful and easy to duck into if you'd rather wet your whistle than your head in the case of sudden sprinkles. Those are fantastic for spontaneous moments, but do plan ahead to visit the National Museum of Scotland, a free way to absorb this wonderful city and country ... and even observe it from a rooftop.

GLASGOW

Easy-to-navigate Glasgow, the only Scottish city with a subway system in place, features Victorian architecture differing from the Gothic style of Edinburgh. But accessibility and a change of scene aren't the only reasons it's a city that shouldn't be missed.

To get a taste of the diversity of lower Scotland's urban character, simply wander 'round. Discover the world's oldest surviving music hall, the Britannia Panopticon Music Hall, and get a feel for life here from 1750 to the present at the People's Palace and Winter Gardens on Glasgow Green. Celebrating both music and culture, the annual Celtic Connections folk, roots, and world music festival is a winter tradition that further solidifies its designation as a European Capital of Culture.

Year-round, head north to find St. Andrews—where Prince William and Princess Kate Middleton met—to visit Scotland's largest church, a beautiful aquarium, and, naturally, fantastic golf courses.

Stop to wander the trails of Culzean Country Park and explore Burns' hometown of Alloway. V

INVERNESS

While fans of Outlander may be disappointed to find that Craigh na Dun is not real, they'll be delighted to learn that Inverness certainly is. The capital of the Scottish Highlands, this destination city at the "mouth of the River Ness" is every bit as romantic, refined, and culturally significant as portrayed.

Don't miss the historic battlefield of Culloden, where brave warriors of the region's clans made their last stand beneath the shadows of the mountains. Spend a day on the shores of Loch Ness in hopes of gazing up on the silhouette of a monster, or hike among the heather, gorse, red deer, and fairies of the wilderness trails. Or take a whisky trail from Speyside, or tool around the countryside in search of castles.

Whatever you do, you'll learn quickly why Inverness has been ranked number one for quality of life in all of Scotland and has become one of Europe's fastest growing cities. It's a destination that doesn't need pop culture to make it pop.

IRELAND

Land of Saints and Scholars

The Emerald Isle is a seemingly apt name for this verdant gem of a land, full of rolling pastures, dramatic views, and bucolic beauty—but it scarcely does this country justice. Known for its jovial people, refreshing ales, and charmingly bright towns, Ireland is a destination that enchants in every way.

For golf enthusiasts seeking jaw-dropping views and challenging holes, Ireland is a dream come true, boasting one-third of the world's links courses and over 400 golf clubs, most with year-round access. For travelers simply looking for a scenic escape, the Wild Atlantic Way, from Donegal through Sligo, Mayo, Galway, Clare, Limerick, Kerry, and Cork, has hauntingly beautiful stopping points.

Long-forgotten stone castles like the one in which the Blarney Stone is set; thatched-roof cottages; dramatic landscapes such as the Cliffs of Moher, dropping straight into the wild Atlantic; pink and orange beaches en route along the Ring of Kerry; cobblestone streets like those of Temple Bar, filled with colorful pubs—all of this and more is in store for those who journey to Ireland. Add to that seafood fresh from the docks, produce straight from the farm, and dairy direct from the fields, and there's simply no question that these are the makings of a truly amazing experience.

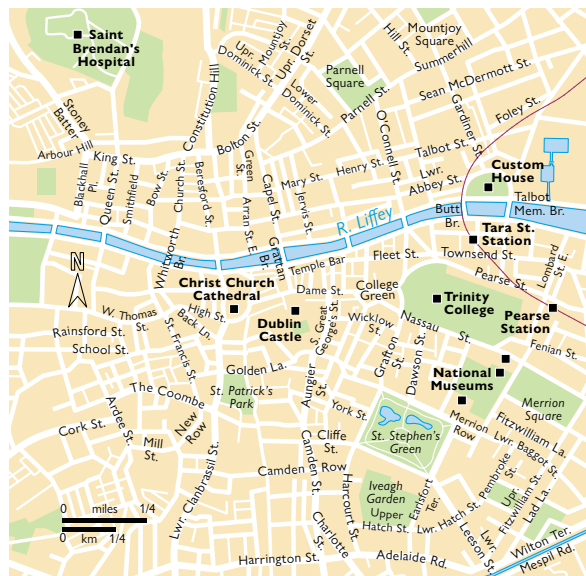

DUBLIN

Ireland's capital is, as expected, a capital time. Travelers look forward to a lively "spirit" in the city the Guinness Storehouse and Jameson Distillery call home, but craic and character is far from limited to public houses and the brightly painted businesses in the Temple Bar neighborhood. Seek this also in hidden tea rooms serving crumbly, oversized Irish scones with grassfed butter, over breakfast of beans and black and white sausage, and farm-to-table dining lovingly curated and prepared by world-class chefs.

Between those social experiences, explore gorgeous landmarks like St. Patrick's Cathedral and Trinity College. Take pictures in front of the colorful doors of Georgian-style homes, then pose for more in front of even more vibrant street art. Tap your toes to a traditional jig, watch a busker at the start of Grafton Street before you shop your way to its end, or take a ride toward the mountain or sea for a taste of the country's wild side.

In short, expect to leave Dublin with plans to come back.

GALWAY

Colorful cobbled streets are made even more vibrant with flags and folk in this bohemian and historic city on the bay. This is a city that's proud of all it is: being a part of the Gaeltacht, where the native Irish tongue continues to flow through adversity; the Connemara Coast, with the Wild Atlantic Way before it and awe-inspiring mountains behind; a walled city with merchant roots by way of the Tribes of Galway; and a hub for creatives, from those who participate in or attend its famous arts festival to the ones who have made Galway a European Region of Gastronomy.

While the power of its identity is immense, there is magic on its streets. The Spanish Arch that marks the way to the old city's quay is one of its most iconic landmarks, but the fame of lively Eyre Square surpasses even that. Or find a rollicking time watching Gaelic games, hurling, rugby, or soccer, all of which have a great presence in this fair city. But regardless of what team you're rooting for, the real winners are always those who lose their hearts to Galway.

CORK

The region referred to as “Rebel County” is as bold, energetic, and scrappy as its nickname implies, and the high proportion of students is only part of the reason why. The city is home to two major institutions, but also to culturally and historically important attractions, like the Cork City Gaol museum, the last port of call for the Titanic, and the renowned English Market, the oldest food market in Europe and part of what makes Cork the culinary capital of Ireland.

But more than that, Cork is the gateway to some of the country’s best. Stay here for a quick jaunt to the famous Blarney Castle and Stone or to spend a day at the famed Old Head golf links. Start here for excursions to colorful seaside towns like the utterly enchanting Kinsale, or to visit Fota Wildlife Park, where kangaroos and lemurs wander freely and unfenced in this 100-acre attraction by Cork Harbour. Choose Cork for equal access to the Wild Atlantic Way and Ireland’s Ancient East. But most importantly, pop into Cork for a delicious taste of modern Irish life at its best.

LIMERICK

While this region's biggest claim to fame is a funny type of poetry, its attractions are far more lyrical. This city bounded by the rivers Shannon and Abbey is a romantic medieval destination, marked by the imposing grandeur of King John's Castle and St. Mary's Cathedral, the oldest building in the city and a former Viking meeting house.

Farther afield, the ancient ruins of Lough Gur provide a primitive Neolithic counterpoint, complete with the largest stone circle in Ireland. And for a happy medium? Don't neglect a visit to Bunratty Castle, the most complete and authentic in the country, for a glimpse of life in the 15th century. Or keep driving, a little over an hour more from the city's center, to find yourself at land's end at the Cliffs of Moher, one of the most spectacular examples of how the Wild Atlantic Way earned its name.

KILLARNEY

The Ring of Kerry is a magical one, filled with colorful cottages and lively villages straight out of a storybook, mythical mountainous and waterfall woodlands, majestic red deer among fairy-tale castles, and meandering one-lane roads that wrap around cliffs. And at the entrance of this ethereal land? Killarney.

A critical stop on the loop around this stunning peninsula, Killarney Town marks the entrance of the national park that shares its name. Bike or hike through it to discover Torc Waterfall, stroll through the Muckcross Traditional Farms and Gardens, visit Dinis Cottage and the Old Weir Bridge, and ake in the views from Ross Castle. Three lakes and 26,000 acres of trails down the foothills of the MacGillycuddy's Reeks mountains are plenty to keep folks busy. But don't stop and assume you've seen it all.

Keep driving the Ring to adorable Kenmare, beachfront Waterville, or Portmagee, where you can take a boat out to see the remote island retreat of monks and puffins both. Or carry on to the peninsula loosely mirrored to Killarney's north and tour the Ring of Dingle for the road slightly less traveled and no less spectacular. But the best advice is to stay long enough to do both. Spellbinding as this region is, you may never even make it to the mainland. And you won't even be missing out.

Killarney, Ireland
